

Video Essay Competition Powered by Sherwin-Williams

The video essay competition award, powered by Sherwin-Williams, was created to defray the cost of higher education for students. Award money can be used toward textbooks, study materials, or any expense related to the cost of achieving higher education. Students who are currently attending any 2-year or 4-year college or university within the state of Pennsylvania may apply.

First place: $100 - $150 (depending on available funds)
Second place: $50 - $75 (depending on available funds)

For instructors running the essay competition in class, only the top three video essays can be submitted.

Deadline: Spring: Submission due by Apr 1
